Storytown

November 2016 - Present

Storytown is an interactive fully improvised musical designed for children. Each performance lets the children take the reigns, choosing where the story takes place and allows them to populate that world with characters, and even join the actors onstage to be part of the show.

Teaching.

Bubbles Academy

June 2018 - Present

Bubbles Academy is an early childhood center focusing on arts based enrichment. As a teaching artist, I teach music classes catered towards developmental milestones for babies, crawlers, and walkers, as well as a class for toddlers to ease separation anxiety between the child and the parent.

JCC Apachi Summer Camp

June 2018 - Aug 2018

Teaching improv & drama workshops for kids ages 5-8 as part of a summer camp. Focuses include movement, ensemble building, focus, and creativity.

Independent Workshop Leader

December 2017 - Present

I teach teen & adult workshops in improv along with one co-teacher. Over the course of two hours we focus on ensemble and trust building, lay-up drills to establish foundations of a scene, and close with some improv games and scenes.
